

Church Will Show Movie On Converts

The motion picture "Beyond the Bells" will be shown at the Foursquare church, 1207 El Prado, on Wednesday, October 12, at 7:30 p.m. It is the true story of the transformation of a tribe of savages to civilized Christians. It was filmed in the "Green Hell" country of Bolivia. The story ends as the missionary, Jack Anderson, inspired by the desire of his converts that more of their people should hear the Gospel, mounts a mule to ride off into the jungle in search of other roving bands of Indians. The movie has been acclaimed as one of the greatest missionary films ever produced.

Duplication of a film of this nature would be impossible because of the adverse conditions under which it was taken.

Reality of Sin Topic Sunday

The subject of the lesson-sermon to be read at the First Church of Christ Scientist, 1750 Manuel avenue, this Sunday, is to be "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?"

"To put down the claim of sin, you must detect it, remove the mask, point out the illusion, and thus get the victory over sin and so prove its unreality," states Mary Baker Eddy.

The Golden Text from Romans (8:2) explains further, "The law of the Spirit of life in Christ hath made me free from the law of sin and death."
